Now there are 3 types of Northwest Jets...all Fan-Jets.

Which kind fits your next trip? Depends where you're going. If it's somewhere in the States, you might get one of our newest Northwest Fan-Jets—the 727.

Built to get in and out of smaller airports, the Northwest 727 takes off in seconds, climbs like sixty, rides quiet as a breeze. (We're adding 26 of them to our Northwest fleet.)

Now, if you're traveling coast to coast, our 720B will be your ship.

Quite a Fan-Jet, this one. Powerful. Versatile. Good for both long and short flights. (Our Northwest Captains consider it one of the finest airplanes ever built.)

But, say you're going to the Orient. In that case, you'll fly one of our 320 Fan-Jets. (Soon, we'll have 14 of these.)

This is a giant among jets. It's the world's largest passenger liner. It can fly farther than any other jet—over 6,000 miles without stopping.

So there you are. 3 types of Northwest Jets . . . all Fan-Jets. They're your 3 best reasons for choosing Northwest.

2 new reasons to fly to the Orient
on Northwest

Drinks "à la cart"

Dinner "à la cart"

Early this year, Northwest introduced a new Imperial Service on all flights to the Orient. Above, you see two of the features—cocktails and dinner served from the cart.
 But that's just a sampling of what's new. Now, you dine with elegant china and silver. Your stewardess wears a colorful Kabuki coat. Our new menu is dazzling! You'll enjoy such delicacies as corncupia smoked lox, skewered shrimp, a fancy King Crab Legs Plate—as well as sliced U.S. Choice Chateaubriand or broiled African Lobster with butter sauce.
 What's for dessert? Choose from the cart—petits fours, napoleons or Strawberry Creme Bavarian.
 In addition to all this, each passenger receives a free traveling kit (filled with toiletries), a pair of slipper socks, as well as Japanese Kokeshi dolls—a memento of the trip. All this—and more—is brand new.
 But one thing is still the same. Our 2,000-mile-shorter route. And that's still the best reason of all for choosing Northwest to the Orient.

Reason 3: your trip is 2,000 miles shorter.
