Advice to International Passengers on Limitation of Liability...

Passengers on a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of origin are advised that the provisions of a treaty known as the Warsaw Convention may be applicable to the entire journey, including any portion entirely within the country of origin or destination. For such passengers on a journey to, from, or through an agreed stopping place in the United States, the Convention and special contracts of carriage provided in applicable tariffs provide that the liability of Northwest and certain other carriers for death of or injury to passengers is limited in most cases to $75,000 per passenger, unless the carrier is not

Passengers Must Check in at Airport Ticket Lift Point at Least 10 Minutes Prior to Departure Time for Domestic Flights

Check-in Time on International Flights 40 Minutes Prior to Departure

WE RECOMMEND . . . that you plainly mark all your baggage with your name and home address. If your claim check should be lost, this will help us locate your property.

PLEASE NOTE . . . Liquids and all fragile items such as cameras, portable radios, etc., are carried at the risk of the passenger. No claims for damage to or by such articles will be considered when these articles are a part of the contents of checked baggage.

RECONFIRMATION . . . We suggest that you call Northwest Airlines reservation office at the boarding point on every return or continuing flight and leave your local telephone number. Reconfirmation is required at least 72 hours prior to departure on an international flight or when traveling between countries in the Orient. Reservations not reconfirmed, where required, are subject to cancellation.
